Homework Service – Terms and Conditions

The homework service which is being provided by Mr James Maths Tuition does not focus on the sale of resources and materials, however, the focus is solely on supporting students with areas which they need to develop to become confident. Resources which are used as part of the homework service have not all been made by Mr James Maths Tuition and some are available to download from the internet. Where homework worksheets have been downloaded the original business features such as copyright information and the business logo will remain on the homework activity.

The purpose of the homework system is to support the individual, and by using skilled tutors in the area of Mathematics this will help to identify which task(s) would be most appropriate for the level which the student is currently working at, as well as pushing them to the next level.

The homework service will be following the pricing strategy below:

- 1 Piece of homework per week on a topic / subject area of choice will cost £2.50.
- 2 Pieces of homework per week on a topic / subject area of choice will cost £4.00.
- 3 or more Pieces of homework per week on a topic / subject area of choice will cost £6.50.
- 1 Piece of homework per week on a topic / subject area of choice including the answers will cost £5.00.
